Arkansas Bred Sanctioned Shows

Thank you for sanctioning your upcoming jackpot with the Arkansas Junior Sheep Council. Enclosed you will find our awards program guidelines. Linked on the ASSC website are forms that will help you complete your show records.

Although the AJSC does not want to dictate how each show is run, the sanctioned shows must follow the AJSC guidelines to increase fairness of the AJSC points, failure to comply with the AJSC guidelines will result in your deposit being retained and may result in your show not being sanctioned in the future.

Shows must be sanctioned 45 days in advance to participate in the program. A sanctioning fee of $50/$75 will be assessed along with the completion of the sanction form.

A deposit of $500.00/$750.00 is required, to be returned when accurate complete results are sent into the points committee.

Your show will be advertised on the ASSC website as well as the AJSC face book page.

Placing sheets from sanctioned shows must be turned in completed within two weeks of the show date. Placing sheets may be found on the ASSC website, you may use your own but please be mindful of what we need to figure and compile points for Arkansas Junior Sheep members.

of lambs in show, # of ABL lambs in show of lambs in each class, class placement, class placement of ABL sheep within each class, # of showman in each showmanship division, Champions and Reserve Champion, ABL Champion, ABL Reserve Champion, top 5 showman in each division)

Points will be awarded according to the point sheets returned to the AJSC from the individual jackpot promoters.

When completing the forms please pay close attention to numbers of animal in each market class as well as number of exhibitors in each showmanship class. These numbers are vital to how the points are figured for the exhibitors.

Pictures of the Grand Champion, Reserve Champion, ABL Grand Champion, ABL Reserve Champion, Sr. Showmanship Champion, Jr. Showmanship Champion, and the Pewee Showmanship Champion would be appreciated (but not required for deposit) and will be uploaded to the ASSC website; these pictures may be emailed to.
